

ACA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does ACA commonly stand for in counseling?

- A) American Counseling Association
- B) Advanced Counseling Academy
- C) Association of Clinical Analysts
- D) American Clinical Association

2. What is the primary ethical principle emphasized in ACA's Code of Ethics?

- A) Maximizing profit
- B) Client welfare and best interests
- C) Professional advancement
- D) Research productivity

3. According to ACA guidelines, what is required for informed consent?

- A) Verbal agreement only
- B) Clear explanation of counseling process, risks, and benefits
- C) Payment of fees
- D) Completion of intake forms

4. What is the ACA's position on dual relationships?

- A) They are always acceptable
- B) They should be avoided when they could impair professional judgment
- C) They are never problematic
- D) They are only acceptable with written consent

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More ACA Questions and Answers FREE, ACA Online Prep Training, ACA Exam, ACA Study Guide, ACA Flashcards, ACA Quizzes visit:

ACA Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved