

ACMT Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does Disk Utility do?

- A) It finds and repairs Mac disk errors.
- B) It enables you to share disk diagnostics with developers.
- C) It collects log messages that are generated from a Mac disk.
- D) It locates nonresponsive disk processes and forces them to quit.

2. How does Target Disk Mode work on an Intel Mac?

- A) The Mac boots into a special OS and appears as a network share
- B) The Mac presents its storage as an external drive to another Mac connected via Thunderbolt or FireWire
- C) The Mac streams its display to another Mac
- D) The Mac's CPU offloads processing to another Mac

3. What is a 'Time Machine local snapshot' in APFS?

- A) A cloud backup to iCloud
- B) An APFS snapshot stored on the local disk allowing recovery of deleted files even without a backup drive connected
- C) A full disk clone saved to an external drive
- D) A macOS Recovery partition

4. What does running 'First Aid' in Disk Utility do?

- A) Erases the disk
- B) Verifies and repairs the disk's file system structure
- C) Formats the drive as APFS
- D) Checks hardware health of the SSD

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More ACMT Questions and Answers FREE, ACMT Online Prep Training, ACMT Exam, ACMT Study Guide, ACMT Flashcards, ACMT Quizzes visit:

ACMT Practice Test