

ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The PRIMARY goal of HIV case management is to:

- A) Reduce healthcare costs by limiting services
- B) Coordinate comprehensive services to optimize health outcomes and retention in care
- C) Manage only the medical aspects of HIV disease
- D) Monitor patients for treatment non-compliance

2. The 'Housing First' model in HIV care prioritizes:

- A) ART adherence before addressing housing needs
- B) Providing stable housing without requiring treatment compliance first
- C) Transitional housing only for treatment-adherent patients
- D) Emergency shelter as a permanent solution

3. PTSD in PLWH is associated with which treatment outcome?

- A) Lower rates of ART adherence
- B) Higher CD4 counts
- C) Decreased viral load
- D) Improved engagement in care

4. Social isolation in PLWH is associated with which outcome?

- A) Improved ART adherence
- B) Lower rates of depression
- C) Poorer health outcomes and reduced engagement in care
- D) Decreased risk of opportunistic infections

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-A 4-C

For More ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Questions and Answers FREE, ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Online Prep Training, ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Exam, ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Study Guide, ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Flashcards, ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Quizzes visit:

ACRN - AIDS Certified Registered Nurse Practice Test