

ATA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which type of transmission requires a clutch pedal to operate?

- A) Automatic transmission
- B) Manual transmission
- C) CVT transmission
- D) Dual-clutch transmission

2. What is the primary function of a vehicle's alternator?

- A) Start the engine
- B) Generate electrical power to charge the battery
- C) Control fuel injection
- D) Regulate engine temperature

3. Which brake component converts the force from your foot into hydraulic pressure?

- A) Brake caliper
- B) Brake rotor
- C) Master cylinder
- D) Brake pad

4. What does the engine oil primarily lubricate?

- A) Transmission gears
- B) Wheel bearings
- C) Engine pistons and crankshaft
- D) Brake components

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-C

For More ATA Questions and Answers FREE, ATA Online Prep Training, ATA Exam, ATA Study Guide, ATA Flashcards, ATA Quizzes visit:

ATA Practice Test