

Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What controls appetite?

- A) Leptin
- B) Lipton
- C) Dessert
- D) Stress

2. Who looks after the patients?

- A) Lawyer
- B) Doctors
- C) Pediatric
- D) Nurses

3. The prescribing cascade occurs when:

- A) Multiple providers prescribe the same medication
- B) A drug side effect is misinterpreted as a new condition and treated with another drug
- C) A patient takes medications at the wrong time
- D) Generic substitution causes unexpected effects

4. Which types of insulin cannot be combined?

- A) Long acting
- B) Short acting
- C) Reactant
- D) None of the above

Answers: 1-A 2-D 3-B 4-A

For More Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Online Prep Training, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Exam, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Study Guide, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Flashcards, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Quizzes visit:

Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Exam Practice Test