

Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the primary goal of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)?

- A) To resolve conflicts outside of traditional court litigation
- B) To increase legal fees
- C) To eliminate all legal procedures
- D) To delay resolution indefinitely

2. Which ADR method involves a neutral third party making a binding decision?

- A) Arbitration
- B) Mediation only
- C) Negotiation only
- D) Collaborative law only

3. What is the role of a mediator in dispute resolution?

- A) To facilitate communication and help parties reach a voluntary agreement
- B) To make final decisions for all parties
- C) To represent one side in the dispute
- D) To determine guilt or innocence

4. What is a key advantage of ADR over traditional litigation?

- A) Typically faster, less expensive, and more confidential
- B) Always results in maximum penalties
- C) Requires no legal knowledge
- D) Eliminates all legal consequences

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Questions and Answers FREE, Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Online Prep Training, Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Exam, Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Study Guide, Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Flashcards, Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Quizzes visit:

Alternative Dispute Resolution Certification Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved