

Ambulatory Care Test Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Using protocol during telephone triage has the following advantages:

- A) Enhance decision making.
- B) Develop a flexible treatment plan.
- C) Provide personalized patient care.
- D) Increase patient compliance.

2. What does the acronym SOAP stand for in ambulatory care documentation?

- A) Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan
- B) Signs, Observations, Actions, Procedures
- C) Summary, Outcomes, Analysis, Progress
- D) Symptoms, Orders, Assessments, Plans

3. When should a sharps container be replaced in an ambulatory care clinic?

- A) When completely full
- B) When three-quarters full
- C) At the end of every shift
- D) Once per week

4. Standard precautions in ambulatory care apply to which of the following?

- A) Only visibly bloody body fluids
- B) All patients with known infections
- C) All patients regardless of diagnosis
- D) Immunocompromised patients only

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-B 4-C

For More Ambulatory Care Test Questions and Answers FREE, Ambulatory Care Test Online Prep Training, Ambulatory Care Test Exam, Ambulatory Care Test Study Guide, Ambulatory Care Test Flashcards, Ambulatory Care Test Quizzes visit:

Ambulatory Care Test Practice Test