

Anatomy Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The following statement is FALSE.

- A) There are two accessory nerves, one on either side of your body
- B) CN XI helps your head and neck move around
- C) The accessory nerve helps your eyes move around
- D) The accessory nerves help us shrug

2. Where is the cisterna chyli located?

- A) Thoracic cavity
- B) Pelvic cavity
- C) Abdominal cavity
- D) Cranial cavity

3. High tensile strength can be found in:

- A) Blood
- B) Loose connective tissue
- C) Bone
- D) Fibrous connective tissue

4. Lymphedema most commonly results from:

- A) Increased arterial blood pressure
- B) Obstruction or surgical removal of lymphatic vessels
- C) Decreased dietary protein intake
- D) Venous valve insufficiency alone

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-D 4-B

For More Anatomy Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Anatomy Exam Online Prep Training, Anatomy Exam Exam, Anatomy Exam Study Guide, Anatomy Exam Flashcards, Anatomy Exam Quizzes visit:

Anatomy Exam Practice Test