

Architecture and Design Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is a 'form-based code'?

- A) A structural design standard for building frames
- B) A zoning code that regulates building form and placement rather than land use categories
- C) A building code for accessible design
- D) An energy code based on building envelope performance

2. What does 'ASHRAE 90.1' govern?

- A) Accessibility requirements for commercial buildings
- B) Energy efficiency standards for commercial buildings (except low-rise residential)
- C) Indoor air quality standards for occupied spaces
- D) Mechanical system noise standards

3. What is 'mixed-use development'?

- A) A project combining parking and open space
- B) A development that incorporates multiple uses such as residential, retail, and office within the same project or building
- C) A site that has both natural and developed areas
- D) A zoning category for light industrial and commercial uses

4. A cantilever beam is supported at:

- A) Both ends
- B) The center only
- C) One end only, with the other end free
- D) Three points along its length

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More Architecture and Design Questions and Answers FREE, Architecture and Design Online Prep Training, Architecture and Design Exam, Architecture and Design Study Guide, Architecture and Design Flashcards, Architecture and Design Quizzes visit:

Architecture and Design Practice Test