

BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A contingency contract:

- A) is a verbal agreement between two individuals
- B) specifies how two people will behave toward each other
- C) often causes scapegoating among learners and peers
- D) depends largely on the use of punishment for its effectiveness

2. Spontaneous recovery refers to:

- A) Behavior returning to baseline after a treatment reversal
- B) The reappearance of an extinguished behavior after a period of time without extinction sessions
- C) Rapid recovery of skills after a long absence from training
- D) Generalization of new behavior to untrained settings

3. Extinction may involve which of the following:

- A) Increase in rate of target behavior
- B) Increase in intensity of target behavior
- C) Increase in a variety of behaviors
- D) All of the above

4. Motivating operations and discriminative stimuli:

- A) Have similar evocative effects on behavior
- B) Are considered synonymous
- C) Occur after the behavior of interest
- D) All of these

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-D 4-A

For More BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Questions and Answers FREE, BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Online Prep Training, BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Exam, BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Study Guide, BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Flashcards, BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Quizzes visit:

BCBA - Board Certified Behavior Analyst Practice Test