

BSFS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The manner of death refers to:

- A) The circumstances under which death occurred (natural, accident, homicide, suicide, undetermined)
- B) The specific disease or injury that directly caused death
- C) The medical mechanism by which life ceased
- D) The physical location where the individual died

2. Familial DNA searching involves:

- A) Searching CODIS for partial matches that may indicate a biological relative of the true contributor
- B) Collecting DNA from all family members of a suspect
- C) Using mtDNA to trace maternal lineage over generations
- D) Comparing DNA of siblings to resolve paternity disputes

3. In toxicology, 'LD50' refers to:

- A) The dose lethal to 50% of a test population
- B) The level at which 50% of subjects show toxic symptoms
- C) 50 milligrams of drug per kilogram of body weight
- D) The concentration found in 50% of overdose cases

4. The term 'trace evidence' refers to:

- A) Small or microscopic materials transferred during contact, such as fibers, hair, and glass fragments
- B) Electronic records left by a suspect's digital devices
- C) Witness statements collected at the scene
- D) Any evidence smaller than 1 centimeter in size only

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More BSFS Questions and Answers FREE, BSFS Online Prep Training,
BSFS Exam, BSFS Study Guide, BSFS Flashcards, BSFS Quizzes visit:

BSFS Practice Test