

BSIE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Travel guides offer

- A) The information for changes required in rearranging material handling equipment
- B) An idea of the flow of materials at various stages
- C) An approximate estimate of the handling which must be done at a particular station
- D) A compact estimate of the handling which must be done between various work sections

2. Work study is focused on

- A) improving production planning and control
- B) improving production capability
- C) motivation of workers
- D) improving present method and finding standard time

3. Break-even represents the

- A) the time when company can make maximum profits
- B) time when industry will undergo loss
- C) the time when unit can run without i loss and profit
- D) the most economical level of operation of any industry

4. A robot's configuration is

- A) spherical
- B) square
- C) oblong
- D) octagonal

Answers: 1-D 2-D 3-B 4-A

For More BSIE Questions and Answers FREE, BSIE Online Prep Training,
BSIE Exam, BSIE Study Guide, BSIE Flashcards, BSIE Quizzes visit:

BSIE Practice Test