

Boating License Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does a red and green light on an approaching vessel indicate?

- A) The vessel is anchored
- B) The vessel is heading directly toward you
- C) The vessel is fishing
- D) The vessel is in distress

2. How many people can legally ride on a personal watercraft (PWC)?

- A) As many as can physically fit
- B) The number recommended by the manufacturer
- C) Maximum of 4 people
- D) No more than 2 people

3. What is the purpose of a kill switch (engine cutoff switch) on a boat?

- A) To conserve fuel
- B) To stop the engine if the operator falls overboard
- C) To prevent theft
- D) To control engine temperature

4. When is a boat operator required to assist in a collision?

- A) Only if specifically requested
- B) Only if no one is injured
- C) Always, unless it puts their own vessel in danger
- D) Never, to avoid legal liability

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More Boating License Questions and Answers FREE, Boating License Online Prep Training, Boating License Exam, Boating License Study Guide, Boating License Flashcards, Boating License Quizzes visit:

Boating License Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved