

CAC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Continuing care is:

- A) An ongoing collaborative care during a client's residential program.
- B) A guaranteed ongoing counseling with same provider throughout levels of care.
- C) An individualized plan for ongoing addiction specific support after a client has completed formalized substance use disorder treatment.
- D) A counseling theory that supports empathic listening and client centered care.

2. The term 'dual diagnosis' refers to:

- A) Having both a substance use disorder and a psychiatric disorder simultaneously
- B) Being diagnosed with two different substance use disorders
- C) Having diagnoses from two different providers
- D) A diagnosis that changes after treatment completion

3. Under HIPAA, clients have the right to:

- A) Access and obtain a copy of their own protected health information (PHI)
- B) Demand that providers delete all of their records
- C) Share their records with any third party without restrictions
- D) Prevent providers from using any information in their treatment

4. Group therapy notes must be written in a way that:

- A) Protects the confidentiality of all group members — one member's note must not identify other members
- B) Names all group members present to verify attendance
- C) Summarizes what each group member said during the session
- D) Is available to all group members upon request

Answers: 1-C 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More CAC Questions and Answers FREE, CAC Online Prep Training,
CAC Exam, CAC Study Guide, CAC Flashcards, CAC Quizzes visit:

CAC Practice Test