

CAFM Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How does telematics improve fleet operations?

- A) By reducing the need for drivers.
- B) By enabling real-time monitoring of vehicles and drivers.
- C) By eliminating fuel costs.
- D) By automating vehicle purchases.

2. What is the role of a fleet utilization analysis?

- A) To track driver personal mileage.
- B) To determine if the fleet size matches operational needs.
- C) To calculate fuel brand preferences.
- D) To schedule driver vacations.

3. Which strategy helps reduce fleet carbon emissions?

- A) Increasing idle time for engines.
- B) Using older, high-mileage vehicles.
- C) Adopting electric or hybrid vehicles.
- D) Avoiding preventive maintenance.

4. What is a common pitfall in fleet vehicle acquisition?

- A) Buying the cheapest model available.
- B) Over-specifying beyond operational needs.
- C) Conducting a TCO analysis.
- D) Leasing instead of purchasing.

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More CAFM Questions and Answers FREE, CAFM Online Prep Training, CAFM Exam, CAFM Study Guide, CAFM Flashcards, CAFM Quizzes visit:

CAFM Practice Test