

CCL Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CCL typically stand for in professional certification?

- A) Certified Clinical Laboratory
- B) Certified Credit Counselor License
- C) Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory
- D) Community College License

2. In cardiac catheterization, what is the primary purpose of contrast media?

- A) To reduce patient anxiety
- B) To visualize blood vessels and cardiac structures
- C) To prevent infection
- D) To manage patient pain

3. What is the most common access site for cardiac catheterization?

- A) Brachial artery
- B) Femoral artery
- C) Radial artery
- D) Carotid artery

4. Which medication is commonly used to prevent clotting during cardiac procedures?

- A) Morphine
- B) Heparin
- C) Epinephrine
- D) Atropine

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CCL Questions and Answers FREE, CCL Online Prep Training, CCL Exam, CCL Study Guide, CCL Flashcards, CCL Quizzes visit:

CCL Practice Test