

CHISSP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which of the following BEST describes residual risk in healthcare information security?

- A) Risk remaining after controls have been applied
- B) Risk identified during the initial threat assessment
- C) Risk transferred to a business associate
- D) Risk eliminated through encryption

2. Under HIPAA, which category of organizations is directly regulated as a 'covered entity'?

- A) Healthcare providers, health plans, and healthcare clearinghouses
- B) Medical device manufacturers and pharmaceutical companies
- C) Health IT vendors and EHR software developers
- D) Employers who sponsor self-insured health plans exclusively

3. Under HIPAA, which of the following is NOT considered Protected Health Information (PHI)?

- A) De-identified health information with all 18 identifiers removed
- B) Medical records in paper format
- C) Oral communications about a patient's diagnosis
- D) Electronic billing records containing diagnosis codes

4. What is the MINIMUM content required in a HIPAA-compliant security incident response plan?

- A) Procedures to identify, respond to, and document security incidents involving ePHI
- B) A list of every possible cyberattack and its remediation steps
- C) Contact information for all healthcare regulators in the US
- D) A quarterly schedule for penetration testing activities

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More CHISSP Questions and Answers FREE, CHISSP Online Prep Training, CHISSP Exam, CHISSP Study Guide, CHISSP Flashcards, CHISSP Quizzes visit:

CHISSP Practice Test