

CH Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Scarification of seeds is performed to:

- A) Provide cold treatment for dormancy breaking
- B) Break or weaken the hard seed coat to allow water imbibition
- C) Apply fungicide treatments
- D) Improve seed storage life

2. What is the primary goal of xeriscaping?

- A) Attracting pollinators
- B) Reducing water usage in landscapes
- C) Increasing biodiversity
- D) Preventing soil erosion

3. What is the common name for Quercus alba?

- A) Red Oak
- B) White Oak
- C) Black Oak
- D) Live Oak

4. What is cation exchange capacity (CEC) in soil?

- A) The soil's ability to retain and release water
- B) The soil's ability to support root growth
- C) The soil's ability to hold and exchange nutrients
- D) The soil's organic matter content

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More CH Questions and Answers FREE, CH Online Prep Training,
CH Exam, CH Study Guide, CH Flashcards, CH Quizzes visit:

CH Practice Test