

CIPP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is a 'limited data set' under HIPAA?

- A) PHI with most direct identifiers removed, used for research, public health, or healthcare operations under a data use agreement
- B) Any data set with fewer than 50 records
- C) PHI that has been fully anonymized
- D) Data restricted to internal use only

2. What is the HIPAA 'minimum necessary' standard?

- A) Covered entities must make reasonable efforts to use only the minimum PHI necessary for the intended purpose
- B) Patients can only access the minimum amount of their own records
- C) Only the minimum number of employees may handle PHI
- D) Business associates must delete PHI within a minimum timeframe

3. Under HIPAA, what is an 'incidental disclosure'?

- A) A secondary disclosure that occurs as a by-product of a permitted use, not considered a violation if reasonable safeguards are in place
- B) A deliberate disclosure made without authorization
- C) A disclosure to the media without patient consent
- D) Any disclosure involving fewer than 10 individuals

4. What does a HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices (NPP) require?

- A) A description of how the covered entity uses and discloses PHI and patients' rights
- B) A complete list of every employee with PHI access
- C) A financial statement of PHI processing costs
- D) Proof that all PHI is encrypted

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More CIPP Questions and Answers FREE, CIPP Online Prep Training, CIPP Exam, CIPP Study Guide, CIPP Flashcards, CIPP Quizzes visit:

CIPP Practice Test