

CNL Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. In CNL practice, what is a 'microsystem'?

- A) The small, functional clinical unit where care is actually delivered, including staff, patients, and support processes
- B) The hospital's executive leadership team
- C) A subset of the hospital's quality improvement committee
- D) The patient's immediate family caregivers

2. In healthcare finance, what is a 'variable cost'?

- A) A cost that changes in proportion to the volume of patients or services provided
- B) A cost that remains fixed regardless of patient volume
- C) A one-time capital expenditure for equipment
- D) Administrative overhead costs

3. The SBAR tool is used by CNLs primarily for which purpose?

- A) Structured communication during patient handoffs and escalation
- B) Documenting nursing assessments in the EHR
- C) Conducting root cause analysis after adverse events
- D) Organizing quality improvement project timelines

4. What does the term 'never event' refer to in patient safety?

- A) A serious preventable adverse event that should never occur in healthcare
- B) An event that has never occurred in the facility's history
- C) A near-miss incident that was caught before harming a patient
- D) A minor event that does not require reporting

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More CNL Questions and Answers FREE, CNL Online Prep Training,
CNL Exam, CNL Study Guide, CNL Flashcards, CNL Quizzes visit:

CNL Practice Test