

COMLEX-USA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A missense mutation results in:

- A) A premature stop codon
- B) A single amino acid substitution
- C) Insertion of an extra nucleotide
- D) Deletion of a codon

2. Guyon's canal nerve entrapment is likely to result in:

- A) Weakness in wrist flexion
- B) Weakness in wrist adduction
- C) Weakness in the thumb abductor
- D) Weakness in finger abduction

3. Informed consent requires all of the following EXCEPT:

- A) Disclosure of risks and benefits
- B) Patient comprehension
- C) Patient agreement with the physician's recommendation
- D) Voluntariness

4. What is the primary goal of lymphatic pump techniques in OMT?

- A) Increase arterial blood pressure
- B) Enhance lymphatic flow and immune function
- C) Reduce cerebrospinal fluid pressure
- D) Stretch thoracic fascia

Answers: 1-B 2-D 3-C 4-B

For More COMLEX-USA Questions and Answers FREE, COMLEX-USA Online Prep Training, COMLEX-USA Exam, COMLEX-USA Study Guide, COMLEX-USA Flashcards, COMLEX-USA Quizzes visit:

COMLEX-USA Practice Test