

CPNRE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A client with diabetes mellitus is experiencing symptoms of hypoglycemia. What is the nurse's priority intervention?

- A) Administer insulin immediately
- B) Give 15 grams of simple carbohydrates
- C) Check blood glucose level first
- D) Call the physician

2. Which assessment finding would be most concerning for a post-operative client?

- A) Blood pressure 130/80 mmHg
- B) Temperature 101.5°F (38.6°C)
- C) Pulse rate 88 beats per minute
- D) Respiratory rate 16 breaths per minute

3. When administering medications, which action demonstrates safe nursing practice?

- A) Checking the medication three times before administration
- B) Asking the client to state their name and birthdate
- C) Verifying the five rights of medication administration
- D) All of the above

4. A client is admitted with chest pain. Which action should the nurse take first?

- A) Obtain a 12-lead ECG
- B) Administer sublingual nitroglycerin
- C) Assess vital signs and oxygen saturation
- D) Draw blood for cardiac enzymes

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-D 4-C

For More CPNRE Questions and Answers FREE, CPNRE Online Prep Training, CPNRE Exam, CPNRE Study Guide, CPNRE Flashcards, CPNRE Quizzes visit:

CPNRE Practice Test