

Case Studies Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A case study should be conducted when?

- A) A thesis or dissertation should not use case studies.
- B) When you want to learn more in-depth, abstract, unrelated information about a general topic in the world.
- C) You might only use one intricate case study where you thoroughly examine a specific topic.
- D) None of the above

2. Case study research begins with _____.

- A) Selecting the case
- B) Defining the case
- C) Collecting the data
- D) Analyzing the data

3. What is 'mens rea' in a criminal law case study?

- A) The mental element of a crime — the intent or knowledge required for guilt
- B) The physical act that constitutes a criminal offense
- C) The testimony of a mental health expert in a trial
- D) A defendant's plea of not guilty by reason of insanity

4. Select the advantages of working with a case study.

- A) It is challenging to discover a case study that is suitable for all disciplines.
- B) It serves as a convenient resource when participants encounter comparable issues at work.
- C) Discussions on certain topics really do bring value for the participants.
- D) The optimal media for shorter-duration programs might not be case studies

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-A 4-B

For More Case Studies Questions and Answers FREE, Case Studies Online Prep Training, Case Studies Exam, Case Studies Study Guide, Case Studies Flashcards, Case Studies Quizzes visit:

Case Studies Practice Test