

Certified Cardiology Coder Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which ICD-10-CM code range covers diseases of the circulatory system?

- A) I00-I99
- B) J00-J99
- C) K00-K95
- D) M00-M99

2. What does the CPT code 93000 represent?

- A) Echocardiogram
- B) Electrocardiogram (ECG/EKG) - routine, 12 leads
- C) Cardiac catheterization
- D) Stress test

3. When coding a myocardial infarction, what additional information is required?

- A) Patient's age only
- B) Type (STEMI/NSTEMI) and location of the MI
- C) Insurance provider
- D) Physician's name

4. Which modifier is commonly used for bilateral procedures in cardiology?

- A) Modifier 25
- B) Modifier 50
- C) Modifier 59
- D) Modifier 76

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Certified Cardiology Coder Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Cardiology Coder Online Prep Training, Certified Cardiology Coder Exam, Certified Cardiology Coder Study Guide, Certified Cardiology Coder Flashcards, Certified Cardiology Coder Quizzes visit:

Certified Cardiology Coder Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved