

Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. At what age and weight should children typically transition from a rear-facing to forward-facing car seat?

- A) 1 year and 20 pounds
- B) 2 years and 30 pounds, or when they reach the seat's limits
- C) 18 months and 25 pounds
- D) 6 months and 15 pounds

2. What is the most important factor in proper car seat installation?

- A) The car seat brand name
- B) Achieving less than 1 inch of movement at the belt path
- C) Using the most expensive model
- D) Installing in the front seat

3. When should children transition from a booster seat to using the vehicle seat belt alone?

- A) When they turn 6 years old
- B) When they weigh 60 pounds
- C) When they pass the 5-step test (typically 4'9" and 8-12 years old)
- D) When they start elementary school

4. What is the safest seating position for children under 13?

- A) Front passenger seat
- B) Back seat, center position when possible
- C) Back seat, behind the driver
- D) Any seat with an airbag

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Online Prep Training, Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Exam, Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Study Guide, Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Flashcards, Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Quizzes visit:

Certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved