

Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which organization provides certification for healthcare credentialing specialists?

- A) Joint Commission
- B) National Association Medical Staff Services (NAMSS)
- C) Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS)
- D) American Medical Association (AMA)

2. What is the National Practitioner Data Bank (NPDB) primarily used for?

- A) Storing patient medical records
- B) Tracking malpractice payments and adverse actions against practitioners
- C) Managing hospital billing information
- D) Scheduling medical appointments

3. Which element is NOT typically part of the credentialing process?

- A) Primary source verification of medical education
- B) Malpractice insurance verification
- C) Patient satisfaction surveys
- D) Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) registration check

4. What does CVO stand for in healthcare credentialing?

- A) Chief Verification Officer
- B) Credentials Verification Organization
- C) Clinical Validation Office
- D) Certified Verification Official

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Online Prep Training, Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Exam, Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Study Guide, Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Flashcards, Certified Healthcare Credentialing Specialist Quizzes visit: