

Certified Medication Technician Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What are the "Five Rights" of medication administration?

- A) Right patient, right medication, right dose, right route, right time
- B) Right doctor, right pharmacy, right insurance, right cost, right location
- C) Right form, right color, right shape, right size, right package
- D) Right storage, right temperature, right humidity, right lighting, right security

2. What should a medication technician do if they discover a medication error?

- A) Ignore it if the patient seems fine
- B) Immediately report it to the supervising nurse or physician
- C) Wait until the end of the shift to report it
- D) Only report it if the patient complains

3. Which route of administration would be appropriate for a sublingual medication?

- A) Swallowed with water
- B) Applied to the skin
- C) Placed under the tongue
- D) Injected into muscle

4. What is the most important step before administering any medication?

- A) Check the expiration date
- B) Verify patient identity using two identifiers
- C) Wash your hands
- D) Document the administration

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More Certified Medication Technician Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Medication Technician Online Prep Training, Certified Medication Technician Exam, Certified Medication Technician Study Guide, Certified Medication Technician Flashcards, Certified Medication Technician Quizzes visit: