

Certified Mold Assessor Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What moisture content level typically indicates conditions conducive to mold growth in building materials?

- A) Above 16%
- B) Above 19%
- C) Above 12%
- D) Above 25%

2. Which type of mold is commonly known as "black mold" and requires special attention during assessment?

- A) Aspergillus niger
- B) Stachybotrys chartarum
- C) Penicillium
- D) Cladosporium

3. What is the recommended method for collecting air samples during a mold assessment?

- A) Gravity settling plates
- B) Impaction sampling with calibrated pumps
- C) Swab sampling only
- D) Visual inspection only

4. According to industry standards, what is the primary goal of a mold assessment?

- A) To provide mold remediation services
- B) To identify moisture sources and potential mold contamination
- C) To sell mold testing equipment
- D) To determine insurance coverage

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Certified Mold Assessor Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Mold Assessor Online Prep Training, Certified Mold Assessor Exam, Certified Mold Assessor Study Guide, Certified Mold Assessor Flashcards, Certified Mold Assessor Quizzes visit:

Certified Mold Assessor Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved