

Clinical Engineer CCE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CCE stand for in clinical engineering?

- A) Certified Clinical Engineer
- B) Clinical Care Equipment
- C) Certified Calibration Expert
- D) Clinical Compliance Engineer

2. What is the primary responsibility of a clinical engineer in healthcare settings?

- A) Direct patient care
- B) Managing medical equipment safety, performance, and regulatory compliance
- C) Hospital administration
- D) Pharmaceutical development

3. Which regulatory body oversees medical device safety in the United States?

- A) CDC (Centers for Disease Control)
- B) FDA (Food and Drug Administration)
- C) OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration)
- D) EPA (Environmental Protection Agency)

4. What is the most critical aspect of medical equipment maintenance programs?

- A) Cost reduction only
- B) Preventive maintenance scheduling based on risk assessment and manufacturer recommendations
- C) Equipment replacement planning
- D) Vendor relationship management

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Clinical Engineer CCE Questions and Answers FREE, Clinical Engineer CCE Online Prep Training, Clinical Engineer CCE Exam, Clinical Engineer CCE Study Guide, Clinical Engineer CCE Flashcards, Clinical Engineer CCE Quizzes visit: