

Confined Space Training Certificate Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A confined space rescue plan should be:

- A) A general template used for all confined spaces on site
- B) Specific to the particular confined space, tested by practice drills, and understood by all members of the entry team
- C) Written only after an incident has occurred
- D) Kept confidential and shown only to the health and safety manager

2. What is the purpose of a confined space entry log?

- A) To record who is inside the space at all times so rescuers know how many people to recover
- B) To satisfy insurance requirements only
- C) To track the number of entries for billing purposes
- D) To record atmospheric test results only

3. When must workers leave a confined space immediately?

- A) When gas alarms sound, communication is lost, conditions change unexpectedly, or the permit to work expires
- B) Only when the permit to work expires
- C) Only if a gas alarm sounds twice in succession
- D) Only when instructed by the permit issuer by telephone

4. Who does the Confined Spaces Regulations 1997 apply to?

- A) Employers, the self-employed, and employees who work in or are responsible for confined spaces
- B) Only large employers with more than 50 employees
- C) Only employers in the construction and utility sectors
- D) Only employers who have previously had a confined space fatality

Answers: 1-B 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More Confined Space Training Certificate Questions and Answers FREE, Confined Space Training Certificate Online Prep Training, Confined Space Training Certificate Exam, Confined Space Training Certificate Study Guide, Confined Space Training Certificate Flashcards, Confined Space Training Certificate Quizzes visit:

Confined Space Training Certificate Practice Test