

Cord Blood Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What are the primary stem cells found in umbilical cord blood?

- A) Muscle stem cells
- B) Hematopoietic stem cells
- C) Neural stem cells
- D) Bone stem cells

2. When is cord blood typically collected?

- A) During pregnancy
- B) After the baby is born but before the placenta is delivered
- C) One week after birth
- D) During the first trimester

3. Which diseases can potentially be treated with cord blood stem cells?

- A) Common cold
- B) Blood disorders and certain cancers
- C) Broken bones
- D) Vision problems

4. What is the typical storage temperature for cord blood preservation?

- A) Room temperature
- B) Refrigerator temperature (4°C)
- C) Liquid nitrogen (-196°C)
- D) Freezer temperature (-20°C)

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More Cord Blood Questions and Answers FREE, Cord Blood Online Prep Training, Cord Blood Exam, Cord Blood Study Guide, Cord Blood Flashcards, Cord Blood Quizzes visit:

Cord Blood Practice Test