

DANB - Infection Control Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How should sterilized instrument packages be stored?

- A) In closed, clean cabinets away from moisture, dust, and direct sunlight
- B) In open bins on countertops for easy access
- C) In the same area as contaminated instruments
- D) Stacked directly on the floor of the sterilization room

2. What causes biofilm formation in dental unit waterlines?

- A) Bacteria adhering to the interior surfaces of narrow tubing, forming a protective matrix
- B) Mineral deposits from hard water
- C) Chemical reactions between cleaning agents
- D) Excessive water pressure in the system

3. Why is hand hygiene critical in dental infection control?

- A) Prevents cross-contamination
- B) Eliminates the need for gloves
- C) Removes visible stains from hands
- D) Substitutes for surface disinfectants

4. Biofilm in dental unit waterlines is primarily composed of:

- A) Blood and saliva from patients
- B) Naturally occurring environmental waterborne bacteria
- C) Chemical disinfectant residue
- D) Air from the dental compressor

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-B

For More DANB - Infection Control Exam Questions and Answers FREE, DANB - Infection Control Exam Online Prep Training, DANB - Infection Control Exam Exam, DANB - Infection Control Exam Study Guide, DANB - Infection Control Exam Flashcards, DANB - Infection Control Exam Quizzes visit:

DANB - Infection Control Exam Practice Test