

DCJS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. PIT maneuver stands for:

- A) Patrol Interception Tactic
- B) Police Intervention Technique
- C) Pursuit Intercept Tactic
- D) Pursuit Intervention Technique

2. What is 'double jeopardy'?

- A) Being tried for a crime after being acquitted.
- B) Being tried for the same crime after conviction.
- C) Being tried for a different crime.
- D) Being retried for the same crime in a different state.

3. Chain of custody is best defined as:

- A) The organizational chain of command during a criminal investigation
- B) A log of all officers who responded to the crime scene
- C) The chronological documentation of evidence possession from collection through court presentation
- D) The process for sequencing witness interviews in order of importance

4. Trace evidence is best described as:

- A) Large weapons such as firearms or blunt objects
- B) Witness statements and recorded interviews
- C) Tiny materials like fibers, hair, or glass fragments transferred during contact
- D) Video surveillance footage from nearby cameras

Answers: 1-D 2-B 3-C 4-C

For More DCJS Questions and Answers FREE, DCJS Online Prep Training,
DCJS Exam, DCJS Study Guide, DCJS Flashcards, DCJS Quizzes visit:

DCJS Practice Test