

Dementia Training Certification Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which approach is most effective when communicating with dementia patients?

- A) Speaking loudly and quickly
- B) Using simple, clear language with patience
- C) Correcting their mistakes immediately
- D) Avoiding eye contact to reduce confusion

2. What is the most common type of dementia?

- A) Vascular dementia
- B) Lewy body dementia
- C) Alzheimer's disease
- D) Frontotemporal dementia

3. Which environmental modification is most important for dementia patient safety?

- A) Bright fluorescent lighting
- B) Removing all mirrors
- C) Reducing fall hazards and securing exits
- D) Playing loud music for stimulation

4. What is the primary goal of person-centered care for dementia patients?

- A) Maintaining strict routines at all times
- B) Preserving dignity and individual preferences
- C) Minimizing interaction with family
- D) Focusing solely on medical needs

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-C 4-B

For More Dementia Training Certification Questions and Answers FREE, Dementia Training Certification Online Prep Training, Dementia Training Certification Exam, Dementia Training Certification Study Guide, Dementia Training Certification Flashcards, Dementia Training Certification Quizzes visit: