

ECMS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How are Cisco Meraki licenses typically sold?

- A) Perpetual Licenses with no expiration date.
- B) Subscription-based licenses with terms such as 1, 3, 5, 7 or 10 years.
- C) One-time purchase licenses without renewal requirements.
- D) Only available for 3 years.

2. What is the primary use of the Cisco Meraki API?

- A) To manually configure each device through a command-line interface (CLI).
- B) To automate network configurations, integrate with third-party systems, and retrieve network data programmatically.
- C) to provide hardware support for Meraki devices.
- D) To create new cloud-based network hardware.

3. What is a key feature of Cisco Meraki MV cameras?

- A) Wireless networking for branch offices.
- B) Intrusion prevention and traffic shaping.
- C) Cloud-managed video surveillance with advanced analytics capabilities.
- D) Switching between Layer 2 and Layer 3.

4. What happens if a Meraki devices license expires?

- A) The device continues to function normally with full access to the cloud dashboard.
- B) The device loses access to the Meraki dashboard and becomes unmanageable.
- C) The device immediately shuts down and stops forwarding traffic.
- D) The device can be manually managed but loses automatic updates.

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More ECMS Questions and Answers FREE, ECMS Online Prep Training, ECMS Exam, ECMS Study Guide, ECMS Flashcards, ECMS Quizzes visit:

ECMS Practice Test