

EFMB Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does the acronym MEDEVAC stand for?

- A) Medical Evaluation and Care
- B) Medical Evacuation
- C) Medical Emergency Vehicle and Care
- D) Military Emergency Evacuation Command

2. When should a combat medic apply a chest seal?

- A) For any open wound.
- B) Only for abdominal wounds.
- C) For gunshot or shrapnel wounds to the chest
- D) When there is severe bleeding in the arm.

3. What does Line 9 of the MEDEVAC request indicate?

- A) Number of ambulatory patients
- B) NBC contamination of the casualty
- C) Security at the pickup zone
- D) Terrain description of the landing zone

4. How does mental toughness play a role in trauma care?

- A) It has no effect on performance.
- B) It helps them stay calm and focused during critical situations
- C) It makes medics more physically powerful.
- D) It only helps in non-combat scenarios.

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-B 4-B

For More EFMB Questions and Answers FREE, EFMB Online Prep Training, EFMB Exam, EFMB Study Guide, EFMB Flashcards, EFMB Quizzes visit:

EFMB Practice Test