

ESE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How often must an IEP be reviewed?

- A) Every five years.
- B) Annually.
- C) Once during elementary school.
- D) Before every test.

2. What is a '504 Plan' and who creates it?

- A) An IEP created by the special education team
- B) A written plan of accommodations and modifications for students with disabilities under Section 504, created by a school team
- C) A medical plan created by doctors
- D) A behavioral intervention plan created by psychologists

3. Who is required to be part of an IEP team?

- A) Only the student's parents.
- B) Teachers, parents, school representative, and sometimes the student.
- C) Classmates.
- D) School janitor.

4. When should behavioral expectations be taught?

- A) At the start of the year and revisited as needed.
- B) Only before holidays.
- C) During tests.
- D) When students misbehave.

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-A

For More ESE Questions and Answers FREE, ESE Online Prep Training,
ESE Exam, ESE Study Guide, ESE Flashcards, ESE Quizzes visit:

ESE Practice Test