

FAA - Part 107 Test Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The acronym CTAF stands for:

- A) Common Tower Advisory Frequency
- B) Control Tower Air Frequency
- C) Common Traffic Advisory Frequency
- D) Central Terminal Area Frequency

2. In a METAR, what does the code `VC` indicate?

- A) Violent Clouds.
- B) Variable Ceiling.
- C) Visual Conditions.
- D) In the Vicinity.

3. Which Part 107 operation requires an FAA waiver?

- A) Beyond visual line of sight (BVLOS) operations
- B) Flying in Class G airspace
- C) Flying at 300 feet AGL
- D) Operating during civil twilight

4. What are the characteristics of a stable air mass?

- A) Turbulent air, good visibility, and cumuliform clouds.
- B) Showery precipitation, strong surface winds, and good visibility.
- C) Smooth air, poor visibility, and stratiform clouds.
- D) Thunderstorms, turbulence, and hail.

Answers: 1-C 2-D 3-A 4-C

For More FAA - Part 107 Test Questions and Answers FREE, FAA - Part 107 Test Online Prep Training, FAA - Part 107 Test Exam, FAA - Part 107 Test Study Guide, FAA - Part 107 Test Flashcards, FAA - Part 107 Test Quizzes visit:

FAA - Part 107 Test Practice Test