

Family Practice Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Regarding acute bronchitis, which is accurate?

- A) Antibiotics should be used if elderly (older than 65) and if the patient was hospitalized in the last year, has diabetes, congestive heart failure, or is on steroids
- B) Patients with an acute exacerbation of chronic bronchitis should not be treated with antibiotics
- C) Bronchodilators should be reversed for those who are on antibiotics
- D) Antibiotics should be used if the cough is present for more than 2 weeks in all patients, regardless of age

2. What is the role of informed consent in acute care?

- A) It is a mere formality
- B) It ensures the patient understands and agrees to the plan
- C) It protects only the provider
- D) It is only needed for surgery

3. Which medication on the list below is a beta blocker?

- A) Metoprolol
- B) Atenolol
- C) Carvedilol
- D) All of the above

4. What is the role of informed consent in women health?

- A) It is a mere formality
- B) It ensures the patient understands and agrees to the plan
- C) It protects only the provider
- D) It is only needed for surgery

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-D 4-B

For More Family Practice Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Family Practice Exam Online Prep Training, Family Practice Exam Exam, Family Practice Exam Study Guide, Family Practice Exam Flashcards, Family Practice Exam Quizzes visit:

Family Practice Exam Practice Test