

FoRC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Prosody in oral reading is best defined as:

- A) Reading at a fast pace
- B) Reading without any errors
- C) Reading with appropriate expression, intonation, and phrasing
- D) Reading independently without assistance

2. Why is summarizing a helpful reading strategy?

- A) It allows them to skip parts of the text
- B) It focuses only on vocabulary
- C) It reinforces comprehension by focusing on key ideas
- D) It encourages reading at a faster pace

3. What does structural analysis help students do?

- A) Improve handwriting
- B) Recognize syllable stress
- C) Decode unfamiliar words using word parts
- D) Memorize spelling rules

4. WCPM, as used in fluency assessment, stands for:

- A) Written Comprehension Per Measure
- B) Words Counted Per Month
- C) Words Correct Per Minute
- D) Word Count Per Module

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-C 4-C

For More FoRC Questions and Answers FREE, FoRC Online Prep Training,
FoRC Exam, FoRC Study Guide, FoRC Flashcards, FoRC Quizzes visit:

FoRC Practice Test