

GVC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does BVLOS stand for in drone operations?

- A) Beyond Visual Line of Sight
- B) Basic Visual Launch and Operating System
- C) Below Visual Level of Sky
- D) Boundary Visual Limit of Operations

2. What does PDRA stand for in UK drone regulations?

- A) Professional Drone Registration Authority
- B) Pre-Defined Risk Assessment
- C) Pilot Drone Rating Assessment
- D) Public Drone Restricted Area

3. How long is a GVC valid before it must be renewed?

- A) 5 years, after which a revalidation assessment is required
- B) 1 year, requiring annual renewal
- C) Indefinitely, once issued
- D) 3 years, with a written exam required for renewal

4. How does precipitation (rain) affect UAS operations?

- A) Rain has no effect on modern commercial drones
- B) Rain can damage electronics, reduce visibility, affect sensors, and degrade GNSS accuracy
- C) Rain only affects operations above 100 metres
- D) Rain improves the drone's cooling system and extends flight time

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-A 4-B

For More GVC Questions and Answers FREE, GVC Online Prep Training,
GVC Exam, GVC Study Guide, GVC Flashcards, GVC Quizzes visit:

GVC Practice Test