

Government and Civil Service Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the Hatch Act?

- A) A law governing federal procurement and contracting
- B) A law restricting partisan political activities of federal employees
- C) A law requiring background checks for federal workers
- D) A law establishing federal employee health benefits

2. What is gerrymandering?

- A) A method of proportional representation in elections
- B) Manipulating electoral district boundaries to favor a political party
- C) A process for recounting votes in close elections
- D) A system of ranked-choice voting

3. What is judicial review?

- A) Congress reviewing court decisions
- B) The president's power to review legislation
- C) The Supreme Court's power to strike down unconstitutional laws
- D) Citizens' ability to appeal court rulings

4. What is a municipal bond?

- A) A contract between a city and its employees guaranteeing wages
- B) A debt security issued by a state or local government to finance public projects
- C) A federal loan to cities for infrastructure improvement
- D) A performance bond required of government contractors

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More Government and Civil Service Questions and Answers FREE, Government and Civil Service Online Prep Training, Government and Civil Service Exam, Government and Civil Service Study Guide, Government and Civil Service Flashcards, Government and Civil Service Quizzes visit:

Government and Civil Service Practice Test