

HPD Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Medication for HPD is typically prescribed to:

- A) Cure the personality disorder directly
- B) Address specific comorbid symptoms such as depression, anxiety, or mood instability
- C) Reduce the desire for social attention
- D) Replace psychotherapy entirely

2. What is a hallmark behavior of someone with HPD?

- A) Seeking solitude.
- B) Avoiding eye contact.
- C) Seeking attention constantly.
- D) Engaging in repetitive behaviors.

3. What is a potential consequence of untreated HPD?

- A) Improved interpersonal relationships
- B) Enhanced emotional stability
- C) Development of comorbid mental health conditions
- D) Decreased attention-seeking behavior

4. In HPD, the style of speech is often described as:

- A) Overly detailed, precise, and systematic
- B) Excessively impressionistic and lacking in detail
- C) Slow and monotonous
- D) Highly technical and jargon-heavy

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-C 4-B

For More HPD Questions and Answers FREE, HPD Online Prep Training,
HPD Exam, HPD Study Guide, HPD Flashcards, HPD Quizzes visit:

HPD Practice Test