

HPT Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. In the Hazard Perception Test, how are points awarded?

- A) Points are awarded based on the number of clicks
- B) Points are awarded for each correct multiple-choice answer
- C) Points are awarded based on how quickly you recognize and respond to a developing hazard
- D) Points are awarded for avoiding hazards completely

2. Why is it important to pass the Hazard Perception Test?

- A) It helps drivers become familiar with the types of roads in their area
- B) It is a requirement to obtain a learner's permit
- C) It ensures that drivers can anticipate and respond to dangerous situations, thereby reducing accidents
- D) It tests a driver's ability to navigate roundabouts

3. What is the primary purpose of the Hazard Perception Test?

- A) To assess a driver's knowledge of road signs
- B) To evaluate a driver's ability to recognize and react to potential hazards on the road
- C) To test a driver's ability to park in tight spaces
- D) To measure a driver's speed and reaction time

4. What does the Hazard Perception Test primarily consist of?

- A) Multiple-choice questions about road rules
- B) Video clips showing driving scenarios
- C) A written essay on hazard identification
- D) A practical driving test on a closed course

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-B 4-B

For More HPT Questions and Answers FREE, HPT Online Prep Training,
HPT Exam, HPT Study Guide, HPT Flashcards, HPT Quizzes visit:

HPT Practice Test