

Ham Radio General Class Test Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The QRP operation is what?

- A) Low-power transmit operation
- B) Transmission using Quick Response Protocol
- C) Traffic relay procedure net operation
- D) Remote piloted model control

2. What is 'gray-line' propagation?

- A) Propagation along the twilight zone between daylight and darkness on the Earth
- B) Propagation through heavy cloud cover
- C) A type of ground wave that follows terrain contours
- D) Signal reflection from rain clouds

3. What is an electronic keyer used for?

- A) Computer interface for PSK and RTTY operation
- B) Automatic transmit/receive switching
- C) To allow time for switching the antenna from the receiver to the transmitter
- D) Automatic generation of dots and dashes for CW operation

4. What does the "QRN" in the Q signal mean?

- A) I am troubled by static
- B) Send more slowly
- C) Stop sending
- D) Zero beat my signal

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-D 4-A

For More Ham Radio General Class Test Questions and Answers FREE, Ham Radio General Class Test Online Prep Training, Ham Radio General Class Test Exam, Ham Radio General Class Test Study Guide, Ham Radio General Class Test Flashcards, Ham Radio General Class Test Quizzes visit:

Ham Radio General Class Test Practice Test