

ICS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How should security incidents be handled?

- A) Following an established incident response plan with documentation
- B) Fixing the issue and not reporting it
- C) Waiting to see if it happens again
- D) Blaming the affected user

2. How should security incidents be handled?

- A) Following an established incident response plan with documentation
- B) Fixing the issue and not reporting it
- C) Waiting to see if it happens again
- D) Blaming the affected user

3. What is the principle of least privilege?

- A) Granting users only the minimum access necessary to perform their duties
- B) Giving all users administrator access for convenience
- C) Restricting access only for external users
- D) Removing all access until requested

4. What is the principle of least privilege?

- A) Granting users only the minimum access necessary to perform their duties
- B) Giving all users administrator access for convenience
- C) Restricting access only for external users
- D) Removing all access until requested

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More ICS Questions and Answers FREE, ICS Online Prep Training,
ICS Exam, ICS Study Guide, ICS Flashcards, ICS Quizzes visit:

ICS Practice Test