

Interior Design Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The aim of subflooring is to:

- A) the drywall layer underneath vinyl flooring so there is a smooth finish to work with.
- B) the cushion layer for carpeting when it's laid over concrete.
- C) the nonstructural material that lays under the flooring as a vapor bearer to the outside elements.
- D) the structural material that spans across floor joists, and a base for finished flooring.

2. The decibel (dB) scale measures:

- A) Sound
- B) Natural Light
- C) Building materials
- D) Water weight

3. What is the definition of a suspended ceiling?

- A) A finished ceiling hung from the overhead by a series of wires
- B) Panels that are directly glued to the ceiling for texture
- C) A series of beams and panels that make up a ceiling system.
- D) A series of soffits that surround a room

4. Terrazzo flooring is composed of which materials?

- A) Compressed cork and resin
- B) Marble or granite chips set in cement or epoxy
- C) Porcelain powder fired at high temperatures
- D) Recycled glass and concrete

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-B

For More Interior Design Questions and Answers FREE, Interior Design Online Prep Training, Interior Design Exam, Interior Design Study Guide, Interior Design Flashcards, Interior Design Quizzes visit:

Interior Design Practice Test