

LCDC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Advocacy in case management refers to:

- A) Speaking on behalf of or alongside clients to access needed services and remove barriers
- B) Filing legal complaints on behalf of clients
- C) Providing legal representation
- D) Negotiating with insurance companies directly

2. A warm handoff in case management means:

- A) Directly introducing the client to the receiving provider rather than simply giving them a referral slip
- B) Handing off case notes to another counselor at shift change
- C) Transferring financial responsibility for services
- D) Closing the case after discharge

3. Supervision for LCDCs primarily serves to:

- A) Enhance clinical skills, ensure quality of care, and provide professional support and accountability
- B) Satisfy licensing board hours requirements only
- C) Replace continuing education
- D) Monitor counselors for potential misconduct

4. Late entries in a clinical record should be:

- A) Labeled as 'late entry' with the actual date written, not backdated
- B) Backdated to the date of the service
- C) Avoided entirely—incomplete notes should be left as-is
- D) Written in pencil to indicate they are tentative

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More LCDC Questions and Answers FREE, LCDC Online Prep Training, LCDC Exam, LCDC Study Guide, LCDC Flashcards, LCDC Quizzes visit:

LCDC Practice Test