

M.Ed. Master of Education Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does the term "congruence" mean in humanistic theory?

- A) When our actions match our beliefs
- B) When we value the reward of certain behavior
- C) The overlap between the real self and the ideal self
- D) When our self-identity matches our social identity

2. What was the name of the fascist leader that ruled Italy during World War II?

- A) King Umberto I
- B) Giuseppe Mazzini
- C) Benito Mussolini
- D) Giuseppe Garibaldi

3. An atom of the element chromium with a mass value of 52 contains how many neutrons?

- A) 22
- B) 28
- C) 38
- D) 52

4. Which of the following will pre-linguistically developing children do using language?

- A) Show needs with complete, simple sentences
- B) Utter single-word responses to questions
- C) Make sounds without forming words
- D) Convey emotions in two-word statements

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-B 4-C

For More M.Ed. Master of Education Questions and Answers FREE, M.Ed. Master of Education Online Prep Training, M.Ed. Master of Education Exam, M.Ed. Master of Education Study Guide, M.Ed. Master of Education Flashcards, M.Ed. Master of Education Quizzes visit: M.Ed. Master of Education Practice Test