

MBBS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. DNA replication proceeds in which direction?

- A) 3' to 5' only
- B) 5' to 3' only
- C) Both 3' to 5' and 5' to 3' simultaneously
- D) Bidirectional from multiple origins but always 5' to 3'

2. What is the normal pH range of arterial blood?

- A) 7.25-7.35
- B) 7.35-7.45
- C) 7.45-7.55
- D) 7.30-7.40

3. The saphenous nerve is a branch of which nerve?

- A) Obturator nerve
- B) Femoral nerve
- C) Common peroneal nerve
- D) Sciatic nerve

4. What is the Charcot's triad of acute cholangitis?

- A) Fever, jaundice, and right upper quadrant pain
- B) Fever, nausea, and epigastric pain
- C) Jaundice, dark urine, and pale stools
- D) Right upper quadrant pain, Murphy's sign, and leukocytosis

Answers: 1-D 2-B 3-B 4-A

For More MBBS Questions and Answers FREE, MBBS Online Prep Training, MBBS Exam, MBBS Study Guide, MBBS Flashcards, MBBS Quizzes visit:

MBBS Practice Test